

PATTERSON LIBRARY

SOCIAL MEDIA POLICY

1. In order to provide free, open and convenient access to our community, Patterson Library participates in social media public forums. These are defined as any web application, site or account created and maintained by Patterson Library which facilitates an environment for library staff and library users to share opinions and information about library related subjects and issues.
2. Comments are moderated by library staff. Library staff reserves the right to remove any comments that are unlawful, inappropriate, or off-topic for the library community. Patterson Library is not responsible for content posted by any subscriber in any forum and comments on Patterson Library's social media forums do not represent the views of the library. Comments containing the following content will be removed by library staff:
 - Potentially libelous comments
 - Obscene, sexually explicit or racist comments
 - Personal attacks, insults or threatening language
 - Private personal information published without consent
 - Off topic comments or hyperlinks
 - Commercial promotions or spam
 - Copyright violations
 - Comments unrelated to the topic of the forum
3. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Patterson Library is not obligated to take any such actions and will not be responsible or liable for content posted by any subscriber in any forum, message board or other area within the service.
4. Patterson Library reserves the right to republish comments posted in our social media accounts to our library Web site, newsletter, or other material.
5. Forums and messaging may not be used for commercial purposes or for organized political activity.
6. By choosing to comment in one of the social media forums, you agree to the guidelines set forth by Patterson Library. If you do not agree to these terms, do not use the service, as violation of these terms can lead to legal liability.

The library reserves the right to terminate services to anyone who, in the opinion of the library, has used the Internet irresponsibly, unlawfully or in violation of the policy explained above.
